Assistance available at these telephone numbers. Calls are free and confidential.

United Way 211 (First Call for Help) is a program funded by the United Way that serves as an information and referral resource to people living in the seven county metro area.

The United Way in Minneapolis serves Hennepin, Anoka, Scott, and Carver counties.

The United Way in St. Paul serves Ramsey, Washington, and Dakota counties.

Also, many of the agencies, although located in Minneapolis or St. Paul, serve clients in surrounding communities.

The professional staff are available for questions from 8 am until 5 pm, Monday through Friday.

If you call United Way between the hours of 5 pm and 8 am, weekends and holidays, you will be directed to call another number. Staff and volunteers from county human service agencies will answer your calls.
